

CALDER DRIFT CAMPSITE
BOOKING CONDITIONS AND INFORMATION

Prices are as per the current year's price list on the website. Prices are reviewed 1 April each year, and will be applied to all advance bookings received prior to 1 April.

An email will be sent to confirm the booking.

Cheques should be made payable to Wakefield District Scout Campsite and sent to:

Mrs M James, 17 Cleveland Grove, Lupset Park, Wakefield, West Yorkshire, WF2 8LP.

Tel 01924 377235 or make a bacs payment to Wakefield District Campsite Sort Code 55-70-23 Account Number 78932432 and send a pdf copy of the payment confirmation to bookings@wakefieldscoutscalderdrift.org.uk.

If the campsite is found to be maliciously damaged an appropriate charge will be raised to cover any reinstatement costs. This includes all areas and facilities on site whilst the group is present

An administration fee of £10 may be made if the booking is cancelled after the confirmation email has been sent out, this will be deducted from the deposit already paid or billed separately if no deposit is made, unless due to inclement weather to be agreed with the Booking Secretary.

Archery/Air Rifle Shooting – Permit/Qualifications of the Range officer, in accordance with The Scout Association's Policy, Organisation & Rules (POR), are to be forwarded as a pdf by email to the Booking Secretary (bookings@wakefieldscoutscalderdrift.org.uk) at the time of booking for future reference. (unless the Permit/ Qualifications have already been supplied).

Duty Warden will be on site to open and close the site, and will complete a visual inspection before the Group departs.

Site Rules and additional Risk Assessments should be downloaded from the website.

Non Scouting Organisations need to supply a copy of suitable insurance cover for the period of occupation of the campsite as they will not be covered by our Scout Insurance.

Site Security – All gates must be closed overnight.

Dogs are not allowed on the campsite, except guide dogs, which will need to be notified to the Booking Secretary before they come on site.

A Scout Leader with the appropriate Nights Away Permit must be in charge of overnight camps for Scouting events. Other organisations must follow the overnight rules set by their Association. Calderdrift Campsite is not responsible for providing any permits for overnight camping for any organisation.

For Scouting bookings the Group is responsible to ensure that all adults have the appropriate and up to date ongoing learning, permits and training for all activities they have booked. For non Scouting bookings, it is down to the individual organisation to make sure that the appropriate adult checks have been completed as per their own organisation.

A confirmed booking is deemed to be a contract between Calderdrift Campsite and the booking Associations Group Executive, not the individual making the booking. This only differs if a private booking has been arranged with the Calderdrift Management Committee.

Calderdrift Campsite reserves the right to cancel any booking. An explanation and refund of monies paid to Calderdrift Campsite if the booking is cancelled by us, although we shall not be liable for any other expenses incurred by your Group in connection with the event.

Any music being played in public that fails to obtain a licence may be a breach of copyright and be subject to prosecution. Calderdrift Scout Campsite does not hold the required licence and takes no responsibility for your actions at the campsite.

There are currently no facilities for rubbish disposal at site and all waste must be removed from site at the end of your stay. Please ensure the site is left litter free ready for the next campers by conducting a litter pick.

Calderdrift Campsite reserves the right to send away from a camp or activity, any person who in their judgment is found to be unmanageable or a danger to the safety or enjoyment of others. In this event no refund will be given. Any additional costs and responsibility involved in removing the participant will be borne by the Group.

Any and all photographs, videos, or other recorded media may be used by Calderdrift Campsite for marketing or advertising purposes without any payment or compensation being offered and without any request being made to the featured parties. If you are not happy to feature in this media please make yourself known to the Duty Warden or to the member of staff recording the media.

The use of drones or UAVs is not permitted on site.

Sole use of the campsite is not guaranteed, if you wish to have sole use please contact the Bookings Secretary as special rates apply.

If a Group is to arrive at Calderdrift Campsite by bus or coach this needs to be pre discussed with the Booking Secretary so appropriate arrangements can be made.

We ask that all site users are considerate of other Groups on site and our neighbours and generally ask for noise to be kept to a minimum from 11pm until 7am.

All accidents, injuries, incidents and near misses should be reported to the Duty Warden for logging in the campsite accident records in addition to your Group's normal accident reporting procedure.

The Calderdrift Scout Campsite does not accept any responsibility for personal belongings or equipment of users of the site. It is suggested that in addition to normal precautions, a check is made that all such items are adequately covered by insurance.

All vehicle must be parked in the lower designated car park. No vehicle are allowed onto the camping areas or other parts of the campsite without the prior permission of the Campsite Warden in advance.
